

SWIFT for Corporates Specialist

Using SWIFT - Certification Programme

*SWIFT Training
Our knowledge, your solution.*

Benefits

- It guarantees you/your staff have the required knowledge
- It offers you a specialist reputation, in the eyes of your manager or your clients
- It helps you increase efficiency
- It helps you reduce your Total Cost of Ownership
- As a manager, it provides you with development opportunities for your staff
- As an individual, it strengthens your contributions to your organisation

This certification has been designed to validate the knowledge of sales and sales support professionals within financial institutions that wish to make available SWIFT connectivity to their corporate clients. Candidates for this Certificate must pass an exam on 'SWIFT for Corporates'-related business and technical topics to acquire the title 'Certified SWIFT for Corporates Specialist'.

Topics on which will be certified

- Business drivers for corporates joining SWIFT
- SWIFT interfaces
- Connectivity options to SWIFT
- SWIFT messaging services for corporates
- SWIFTNet security
- Usage of message standards (FIN and ISO 20022) for corporates
- Available SWIFT services for corporates (payments initiation, cash management, foreign exchange and money market confirmations, account reporting, electronic bank account management, trade services, and 3SKey)

Duration

The exam will take between two and three hours.

Recommended training path

If you do not have the required knowledge on the above topics, you can decide to take additional SWIFT training. We have designed a recommended training path which will provide you with the necessary knowledge to enable you to pass the exam. Visit the SWIFT Training site for more information.

- Understanding SWIFTNet services and security
- SWIFT for corporates
- Cash and treasury management for corporates - using FIN messages

Validity of your certificate

Your certificate will expire when SWIFT connectivity for corporates changes and the exam you have taken is no longer representative. SWIFT Training will inform you in due time of the expiry of your certificate.

On-site Certification

Exams are usually taken at a test centre, but if you have a group of people who require training and certification on the same topic, you can choose to run the programme at your premises. That is what we call 'On-site Certification'. Contact your regional SWIFT Training office or complete the On-site request form, and one of our training coordinators will contact you
