January 2018

Dear Julie Grade,

Laurent Verstraeten

Managing Director, Professional
Services, APAC

In our fast-paced world, the human factor remains the core asset of any organisation, and an essential success pillar. Experts within the financial services industry understand its significance in their operations and are adapting their people development strategy to ensure readiness to industry transformation: cyber security, digitisation, operational efficiency.

When it comes to you and your talent development ambitions, SWIFT is - more than ever - by your side to accompany you on that journey. With an enriched courses portfolio and a state-of-the-art training platform, we offer you meaningful staff development plans that allows you to develop your employees on SWIFT and our financial industry 'hottest' topics, whether it relates to Payments/Security Operations, IT security or Financial Crime Compliance.

I therefore invite you to explore our new 2018 training catalogue, and to look for the courses that will further grow your teams' excellence. Make sure to also check out our new certification programme which allows for benchmarking skills against industry best practice.

About SWIFT

SWIFT is a global member-owned cooperative and the world's leading provider of secure financial messaging services. We provide our community with a platform for messaging, standards for communicating and we offer products and services to facilitate access and integration; identification, analysis and financial crime compliance. Our messaging platform, products and services connect more than 11,000 banking and securities organisations, market infrastructures and corporate customers in more than 200 countries and territories, enabling them to communicate securely and exchange standardised financial messages in a reliable way. As their trusted provider, we facilitate global and local financial flows, support trade and commerce all around the world; we relentlessly pursue operational excellence and continually seek ways to lower costs, reduce risks and eliminate operational inefficiencies. Headquartered in Belgium, SWIFT's international governance and oversight reinforces the neutral, global character of its cooperative structure. SWIFT's global office network ensures an active presence in all the major financial centres.
